

"SYRUP OF FIGS" CHILD'S LAXATIVE

LOOK AT TONGUE! REMOVE POISONS FROM STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS

Acc. at "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruit taste. Full directions for child's use on each bottle. Give it without fear.

The Lyons Co.

CORSET BARGAIN

One lot of Warner's
Corsets $1.00

One lot of Warner's
Corsets $1.50

They are low and medium bust and long hip—the popular models—and actual value at $1.75 and $2.25. The quantity is limited, but a bargain for all who avail themselves of the opportunity. No exchanges and no refunds.

Brassieres 50c

A regular 75c quality, in embrodery trimmed—sizes 36 to 44.

Children's Sweaters

$2.98

A Crush Wool Sweater actual value, $4.98, for Children 6 to 10 years, in rose, Copenhagen, yellow and green, with sailor collar, belt and pockets. The model all the children like.

THE DIME SAVINGS BANK OF NORWICH

The regular Semi-Annual Dividend has been declared at the rate of 4 per cent. a year from the earnings of the past six months, and will be payable on and after May 15, 1919.

FRANK L. WOODARD, Treasurer.

ap28daw

Notice

Emil M. Fox, after 20 years in the wholesale Bakery Business in Norwich, has turned over that branch of his business to the Dexter Bakery Co. of Springfield, Mass., effective April 28. Mr. Fox will continue to run his retail bakery with the same high class line of goods as before and is also going into the wholesale flour business, in connection with his regular trade.

DR. A. J. SINAY

DENTIST

Rooms 18-19 Alice Building, Norwich
Phone 1177-8

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

SHOE REPAIRING

PEOPLE are too wasteful, throwing away their old shoes. If you would take them to the Broadway Shoe Repair and Shine Parlor, they would make them like new. Give them a trial. 52 Broadway.

BROADWAY SHOE REPAIR SHOP

DR. A. J. SINAY

DENTIST

Rooms 18-19 Alice Building, Norwich
Phone 1177-8

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

SHOE REPAIRING

PEOPLE are too wasteful, throwing
away their old shoes. If you would take them to the Broadway Shoe Repair and Shine Parlor, they would make them like new. Give them a trial. 52 Broadway.

BROADWAY SHOE REPAIR SHOP

DR. A. J. SINAY

DENTIST

Rooms 18-19 Alice Building, Norwich
Phone 1177-8

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

SHOE REPAIRING

PEOPLE are too wasteful, throwing
away their old shoes. If you would take them to the Broadway Shoe Repair and Shine Parlor, they would make them like new. Give them a trial. 52 Broadway.

BROADWAY SHOE REPAIR SHOP

DR. A. J. SINAY

DENTIST

The Bulletin

Norwich, Monday, April 28, 1919

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 8.11 o'clock this evening.

At present there are 55 patients at the William W. Backus hospital, Norwich.

As far as could be determined Sunday, peach buds in orchards about Norwich remained uninjured by the frost.

The Connecticut State Osteopathic society held its spring meeting Saturday afternoon and evening in the City club, Hartford.

In the absence of Gov. Marcus H. Holcomb at the Boston parade Senator William H. Heald of Stafford was acting governor.

About May 1st the Fisher's Island steamer will start regular trips between the island and New London every day excepting Sunday.

A number of persons seeking membership in Park Congregational church met the church committee at the close of the morning service Sunday.

License your dogs in the town clerk's office now: male and spayed dogs $1.25, female dogs $10.25. One dollar extra after May 1st.—adv.

In St. Patrick's church Sunday the baptism of marriage were published between Joseph W. Hourigan and Miss Mary Peris Copp, both of Norwich.

It is expected that Raymond E.
Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B.
Case of Broad street, will arrive home from France by the end of this week.

After a chilly Saturday, the temperature rose Sunday so that the day proved warm and pleasant. The mercury stood at 60 degrees in the shade about noon.

New England landscapes by Henry R. Poore, from the country about Old Lyme, Conn., and the dunelands of Norfolk, Mass., are on view in the Babcock galleries, New York.

At the Christian Endeavor service at Tolland Sunday evening Sergt.
William Sumner Simpson, recently discharged from Camp Upton, told of his experiences in England and France.

In the superior court at Hartford Margaret Chambers Schultz was granted a divorce from Carlton Schultz for intolerable cruelty. They lived at Manchester and Rockville.

The papers mention that Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Manchester, farm management demonstrators, of Storrs, are visiting points in Fairfield county in the interest of a farm management project.

It was rumored about town Saturday that J. J. Monahan, a well known property on Broadway had been purchased by William H. Murphy of Williams street, who will remodel it into apartments.

An Ellington soldier, Private Herbert C. Pease is expected to arrive from France on the Kronland which is due at Newport News, Va. He enlisted in the regular army more than a year ago.

At North Stonington, George W.
Randall, who recently sold his place in the Shunee district to Otis Frink, disposed of his personal property at public auction Saturday, Henry L. Allen being auctioneer.

At the milk show in the 71st armory, New York, last week, Beechland's Oxford Fern, a 5 year old Jersey cow from Rockville farm, Yantic, owned by Mrs. J. H. Broderick, won the first calf born at the show.

This (Monday) evening at a meeting of the Marlborough town school committee at the Center schoolhouse to decide upon teachers' wages for next year, Supervisor H. S. Libby of Colchester will be present.

News has been received here that the signal corps, United States army, has been declared at the rate of 4 per cent. a year from the earnings of the past six months, and will be payable
on and after May 15, 1919.

The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company has issued a new train schedule for trains running between Hartford and Saybrook Point, Hartford and Middletown, and Hartford and New London.

The Girls' Friendly society (Episcopal) has been organized to raise a $25,000 endowment fund for the vacation house at Canaan to be called the "Margaret Jackson Endowment Fund" for Canaan Vacation House.

A former Norwich resident, Denison Gallaudet, who purchased the Brightman farm on the Western road, Stonington, has a large force of men making improvements to the place. A large cottage for the use of the caretaker is being built.

The directors of the Connecticut reformatory at Cheshire have decided to employ a resident physician and surgeon, and have secured Dr. Berry, who is about 45 years old, and was born in Warren, Mass.

Amateur astronomers here find that the planet Venus is now splendidly displayed in the western sky after sunset and will remain visible as the most lucid evening star until the beginning of August, setting about three hours after the sun.

Norwich alumni learn that a Roosevelt memorial exhibition to be held at Columbia university from May 9 to commencement day, June 4, will include all paintings, bronzes, etchings and a wide variety of manuscripts of the former president.

David Roberts of Williamstown and Mrs. Pansy Pedro of South Coventry were married Friday afternoon by Rev.
George W. Christie at the latter place.
The bride on Tuesday was divorced at Rockville by her husband, Peter Pedro, who is in the United States navy.

Announcements have reached the Art school that an all-day convention of the interior decorators and home furnishers of the United States is to be held at the Hotel Astor, New York, on May 12, the first meeting of the National Association of Decorative Arts and Industries.

Connecticut members of the D. A. B. just back from Washington, D. C., state that the candidacy of Mr.
George Maynard Minor of Waterford for president general in 1920 of the National society, D. A. B., was warmly endorsed, not only by Connecticut, but by several other states.

Sealed proposals for seven pieces of new state road work were received at the office of State Highway Commissioner Charles J. Bennett last week.
21 bidders submitting estimates for the work with a total of 35 bids. The towns in which the new road work will be done include Old Lyme.

A good number of members of the Holy Name society received communion at the 7:30 mass in St. Patrick's church Sunday from Rev. Peter J. Conroy, acting pastor, while the rector, Rev. J. H. Broderick, is absent on a short vacation. At the 9 and 10:30 masses Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiated.

FUNERAL.

Mrs. William Westberg.

The funeral of Mrs. William Westberg, wife of William Westberg, was held from her late home in Hanover Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends were present. Rev.
F. A. Peterson of Norwich conducted the services. The bearers were Herman Nilson, Oscar Rice, Carl Anderson and John Westman. Burial was in Hanover cemetery.

Undertaker George Grant was in charge.

The colored girl baby is born to blush unseen.

PERSONALS

Miss Lena Wolf of Columbia recently spent several days at Grotton Long Point.

Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Kenagy are to make their home at No. 6 Huntington place.

Miss Mary E. Rogers, supervisor of music in the Norwich schools, visited the schools of New London Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cassidy toured Providence by auto to spend Sunday with Martin Cassidy of 249 Boswell avenue.

Seymour Stoddard, a former Yantic boy, now manager of the Cottrell Lumber company of Mysic, was a recent caller in Norwich.

Jacques A. Kaplan left here Saturday for New York city after a stay of two months with Mrs. and Mr. R. S.
Taylor of Cliff street.

Joseph Barry, son of Mrs. John Barry, of Champlain place, who is a patient at the Norwich Tuberculosis Sanatorium, is very comfortable and enjoys the daily visits of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Frank Atchison, whose husband died April 14th and who has been at Backus hospital, left Norwich Saturday to make her home with her brother, William Atchison, in Waterbury. Her brother accompanied her, C. A. Gager, Jr., taking them to Waterbury in his car.

THREE ARRESTED AT SPRING STREET HOUSE

On Saturday night on complaint of some of the neighbors in the Spring street section of the city, the police made a visit to the home of Samuel Corey at 45 Spring street and arrested him on a charge of keeping a disorderly house. Thomas Mandis, of Providence, and Josephine Hall of this city were also taken into custody charged with being frequenters of the place.

The two men are Portuguese and the woman a negro. Beside the three people a quantity of whiskey was taken to the police station. The arrests were made by Sergeant Allan C.
Mathews, Officers DeVito, Allen, R.
P. Murphy.

BRUSH FIRE STARTS IN THE "CRANBERRY"

A brush and grass fire that covered several acres of ground started about noon Sunday in the "Cranberry" near St. Joseph's cemetery and spread over several adjoining lots. The smoke was plainly seen in the center of the city.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Christopher Bauer.

After a long illness covering a period of five years, the life of Rosie Krause, the beloved wife of Christopher Bauer, died at her home, 26 Early Saturday morning, April 26.

Mrs. Bauer was born in Asch, Bohemia, in 1847, coming to this country 23 years ago and marrying Christopher Bauer three days after reaching here.

A number of years ago Mr. and Mrs. Bauer moved to Occum, where they made their home until a year ago when they moved to their newly purchased home, 105 Dunham street.

While in Occum, Mrs. Bauer made many friends and was ever ready with sympathy and a helping hand for those in need.

She was a member of the Ladies' club and was greatly interested in its work until failing health forced her to retire from active service.

Mrs. Bauer is survived by her husband, Christopher Bauer, and a niece, Mrs. M. B. Brum.

During her long and painful illness, which was borne with singular patience, she was tenderly cared for by her husband and niece, Mrs. Brum.

Mrs. Bauer was a devoted wife and mother, and her death is a great loss to Mr. and Mrs. Bauer.

Franklin Goss.

Franklin Goss died suddenly at his home, 62 "ot street, New London, on Thursday night.

Mr. Goss was born in 1847. He was a tinsmith, he was twice married, but was a widower. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. D. W. Howard of Putnam, Conn., and Mrs. Helen Cox of New York. He leaves four brothers, Charles H. Elmer, George A. of New London, and William E. Goss of New Haven.

There are also three sisters, Mrs.
Charles L. Jordan, Mrs. Charles H.
Niles and Miss Margaret Goss, all of New London.

Connecticut Patents.

The list of patents issued by the United States patent office to citizens of Connecticut, as contained in the Official Gazette, dated Tuesday, March 18, 1919, is as follows:

Axel G. Ahlgren, Bridgeport, band brake. Charles L. Barger, Norwich, check valve. William G. Fairbank, Middletown, new kind of machine.

George E. Hawrylasz, Southington, nut lock. Irving C. Jennings, South Norwalk, rotary compressor. Thomas C.
Johnson, New Haven, trigger mechanism for fire arms. Edmund J. Kahl, Wallingford, insulator handle. George P. Knapp, Bridgeport, shade roller for windows.

George E. Schoenmehl and M. L. Martus, Waterbury, primary battery. Wincentas Ramanauskas, Hartford, match box. Wilbur L. Shepard, West Hartford, variable and reversible speed mechanism. Wilbur L.
Shepard, West Hartford, brake mechanism. Henry G. Voight, New Britain, lock two patents. Arthur W. Wellington, Waterbury, ball and socket joint for electric fixtures. Bishop White, West Hartford, unit non-skid chain device. Richard L. Wilcox, Waterbury, heating machine.

Trade marks, Londoners, Fry & Clark, New Britain, electrically-heated pads for therapeutic use.

Bishop Brewster's Appointments.

In the appointment of Bishop Chauncey B. Brewster for the coming months, the date of Sunday, June 15, is given for him to be at Christ church, Pomfret, in the morning.

Pomfret church, in the afternoon, and St. Alban's church, Danielson, in the evening.

Secures Divorce.

In the superior court at New Haven Friday Lillian Smith Guilford of New Haven was granted divorce from Herry T. Guilford of Norwich on the grounds of a statutory offense. The couple was married Dec. 24, 1901, and the maiden name of the wife was Smith.

More Than Ever
INSTANT
POSTUM

is appealing to coffee drinkers.

Its rich flavor, healthfulness,
convenience and Economy are among the reasons why.

The musical notes of a hand organ are easily discounted.

OBSERVE ODD FELLOW CENTENNIAL

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of the city, members of Uncas lodge, No. 11, Shetucket lodge, No. 27, and Hope Rebekah lodge, No. 21, attended the morning service Sunday at the Church of the Good Shepherd (Universalist) in celebration of the centennial anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States. The Odd Fellows met at their hall on Franklin street and marched from there in a body to the church, where they had seats reserved for them, about 60 attending the service.

Rev. Joseph P. Cobb, the pastor, who is a member of Uncas lodge, addressed the congregation on the theme Character and Friendship, from the text Psalm 103: 27. The service was conducted by the choir.

Our guests here today, he said, represent an organization that is celebrating its 100th anniversary. Our demonstration is preparing for the celebration of the centennial anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The Odd Fellows met at their hall on Franklin street and marched from there in a body to the church, where they had
seats reserved for them, about 60 attending the service.

Rev. Joseph P. Cobb, the pastor,
who is a member of Uncas lodge, addressed the congregation on the theme Character and Friendship, from the text Psalm 103: 27. The service was conducted by the choir.

Our guests here today, he said, represent an organization that is celebrating its 100th anniversary. Our demonstration is preparing for the celebration
of the centennial anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The Odd Fellows met at their hall on Franklin street and marched from there in a body to the church, where they had
seats reserved for them, about 60 attending the service.

Rev. Joseph P. Cobb, the pastor,
who is a member of Uncas lodge, addressed the congregation on the theme Character and Friendship, from the text Psalm 103: 27. The service was conducted by the choir.

Our guests here today, he said, represent an organization that is celebrating its 100th anniversary. Our demonstration is preparing for the celebration
of the centennial anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The Odd Fellows met at their hall on Franklin street and marched from there in a body to the church, where they had
seats reserved for them, about 60 attending the service.

Rev. Joseph P. Cobb, the pastor,
who is a member of Uncas lodge, addressed the congregation on the theme Character and Friendship, from the text Psalm 103: 27. The service was conducted by the choir.

Our guests here today, he said, represent an organization that is celebrating its 100th anniversary. Our demonstration is preparing for the celebration
of the centennial anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The Odd Fellows met at their hall on Franklin street and marched from there in a body to the church, where they had
seats reserved for them, about 60 attending the service.

Rev. Joseph P. Cobb, the pastor,
who is a member of Uncas lodge, addressed the congregation on the theme Character and Friendship, from the text Psalm 103: 27. The service was conducted by the choir.

Our guests here today, he said, represent an organization that is celebrating its 100th anniversary. Our demonstration is preparing for the celebration
of the centennial anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The Odd Fellows met at their hall on Franklin street and marched from there in a body to the church, where they had
seats reserved for them, about 60 attending the service.

Rev. Joseph P. Cobb, the pastor,
who is a member of Uncas lodge, addressed the congregation on the theme Character and Friendship, from the text Psalm 103: 27. The service was conducted by the choir.

Our guests here today, he said, represent an organization that is celebrating its 100th anniversary. Our demonstration is preparing for the celebration
of the centennial anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The Odd Fellows met at their hall on Franklin street and marched from there in a body to the church, where they had
seats reserved for them, about 60 attending the service.

Rev. Joseph P. Cobb, the pastor,
who is a member of Uncas lodge, addressed the congregation on the theme Character and Friendship, from the text Psalm 103: 27. The service was conducted by the choir.

Our guests here today, he said, represent an organization that is celebrating its 100th anniversary. Our demonstration is preparing for the celebration
of the centennial anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The Odd Fellows met at their hall on Franklin street and marched from there in a body to the church, where they had
seats reserved for them, about 60 attending the service.

Rev. Joseph P. Cobb, the pastor,
who is a member of Uncas lodge, addressed the congregation on the theme Character and Friendship, from the text Psalm 103: 27. The service was conducted by the choir.

Our guests here today, he said, represent an organization that is celebrating its 100th anniversary. Our demonstration is preparing for the celebration
of the centennial anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The Odd Fellows met at their hall on Franklin street and marched from there in a body to the church, where they had
seats reserved for them, about 60 attending the service.

Rev. Joseph P. Cobb, the pastor,
who is a member of Uncas lodge, addressed the congregation on the theme Character and Friendship, from the text Psalm 103: 27. The service was conducted by the choir.

Our guests here today, he said, represent an organization that is celebrating its 100th anniversary. Our demonstration is preparing for the celebration
of the centennial anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The Odd Fellows met at their hall on Franklin street and marched from there in a body to the church, where they had
seats reserved for them, about 60 attending the service.

Rev. Joseph P. Cobb, the pastor,
who is a member of Uncas lodge, addressed the congregation on the theme Character and Friendship, from the text Psalm 103: 27. The service was conducted by the choir.

Our guests here today, he said, represent an organization that is celebrating its 100th anniversary. Our demonstration is preparing for the celebration
of the centennial anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The Odd Fellows met at their hall on Franklin street and marched from there in a body to the church, where they had
seats reserved for them, about 60 at-